

Cailin M. Ringelman | Partner, Fort Worth

600 West 6th Street, Suite 300

Fort Worth, Texas 76102

Email: cringelman@canteyhanger.com

Phone: 817-877-2802 | Fax: 817-877-2807

Cailin Ringelman's practice focuses on civil litigation with an emphasis on aviation litigation. She represents original equipment manufacturers, pilots and operators in various litigation matters. Ms. Ringelman also represents railroads in matters including FELA, grade crossing, freight claims and real estate. Part of Ms. Ringelman's practice also represents entities, individuals and financial institutions in bankruptcy matters and related adversary proceedings.

Ms. Ringelman served, while in law school, as an Articles Editor for the Washburn Law Journal and was the first recipient of the John D. Ensley Memorial Writing Award. She served on the Washburn Law School Alumni Association Board of Governors from 2008 to 2014.

PRINCIPAL PRACTICE AREAS

- Aviation
- Commercial Litigation
- Bankruptcy

EDUCATION

- Washburn University School of Law, Topeka, Kansas, J.D., cum laude, 2002
- Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, B.S., Biology, 1999
Alpha Phi

EXPERIENCE

Cailin Ringelman's practice focuses on civil litigation with an emphasis on aviation litigation. She represents original equipment manufacturers, pilots and operators in various litigation matters. Ms. Ringelman also represents railroads in matters including FELA, grade crossing, freight claims and real estate. Part of Ms. Ringelman's practice also represents entities, individuals and financial institutions in bankruptcy matters and related adversary proceedings.

BAR ADMISSIONS & CERTIFICATIONS

- State Bar of Texas, 2007
- United States District Court for the Eastern, Northern, and Western Districts of Texas
- United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas
- United States District Court for the District of Kansas, 2002
- United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Kansas
- United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri, 2003

NEWS

- Two Partners Join Transportation Group; Two Partners Re-join Firm
-